

MAY 2013

Notes from the Chair

Serving as Chair of the Joint Commission is an exciting honor after my many years of working to improve health care for all Virginians. I look forward to building on JCHC’s work of 21 years in addressing health-care concerns related to access, availability, quality, cost, and transparency.

In addition, as a vigorous advocate for military service members, veterans, and their families, I will seek to share information and provide assistance particularly related to health and long-term care services. As a first step, we have posted website links to specific resources for veterans on JCHC’s home page.

In closing, I want to recognize Senator Blevins, a much-admired member of the Joint Commission who will retire in August. Harry, we will certainly miss your calm, reassuring manner and principled character. Thank you for your many contributions to the Commission, including your service as the Healthy Living/Health Services Subcommittee Co-Chair.

Message from the Vice-Chair

This year will be another busy one for the Joint Commission as we strive to provide useful, timely, and insightful reports on the many important issues we are studying. As in the past, we will work with advocates and stakeholders in shaping practical responses for policy-makers to consider during the upcoming session.

And finally, I would like to join Senator Puller in recognizing and thanking Senator Harry Blevins for his distinguished service on the Joint Commission.
